LYON TOWNSHIP, Mich.

The Oakland County sheriff's department says a man was using a tractor to pull out a tree stump when the tractor flipped and crushed him underneath, killing him.

The department says the accident happened Tuesday afternoon in Lyon Township, about 30 miles west-northwest of Detroit.

It says the victim was the 47-year-old owner, Constantino Delsignore. He was declared dead at the scene.

An investigation continues.
