ORION TOWNSHIP — Police said a 32-year-old Orion Township woman was arraigned today for allegedly performing fellatio on a 13-year-old boy who was her teenage daughter's friend from Texas, after the woman's husband tipped police.

Norma Elisa Lira was charged with 3rd-degree criminal-sexual conduct "with a person at least 13 years of age but under 16 years" in 52-3 District Court in Rochester Hills, and was being held today in Oakland County Jail on a $50,000 bond, after she turned herself in following a month-long investigation, according to a memo from the Oakland County Sheriff's Office.

The alleged incident occurred last year, sometime between August and October, at Lira's home on Flint Ridge Street, with a Texas youth who was visiting Michigan relatives at the time but was not related to Lira, police said. The charge is punishable by up to 15 years in prison, Oakland County Undersheriff Mike McCabe said.

Lira has no prior criminal record, McCabe said. The couple have three children altogether, he said.

Lira's husband "suspected something and she confessed to him," after which the husband called police, McCabe said. Lira faces a preliminary exam Thursday in Rochester Hills District Court.
