

Posted: 8:46 a.m. March 8, 2010

Samaritans free woman pinned under car in Oakland County

BY TAMMY STABLES BATTAGLIA
FREE PRESS STAFF WRITER

Two Good Samaritans pushed a car off a woman after a rollover accident in Oakland County, according to investigators.

A 27-year-old Independence Township woman was driving a 2008 Nissan Versa south on Pine Knob Road north of Clarkston Road when she went off the roadway at 9:15 a.m. Sunday, the Oakland County Sheriff's Office reported today. The car overturned, ejecting the driver, who was not wearing a seat belt, and landed on top of her. Two men then lifted the car off the woman, according to the sheriff's office.

She was taken to Genesys Regional Medical Center in Grand Blanc, where she was in stable condition.

Investigators do not believe alcohol played a part in the crash.

Investigators today were asking the men if they would like to talk publicly about the incident, according to the sheriff's office.

Advertisement

Mom Dilemma #36:
Your daughter insists on wearing her princess costume to the grocery store. Allow it or not?

YES, at least she's dressed!

NO, I have some rules!

momslike<sup>me</sup>.com
where local moms meet

Print Powered By  Format Dynamics