

Posted: 12:06 p.m. May 3, 2010

Pontiac man accused of trying to shoot ex-girlfriend

By Gina Damron
Free Press Staff Writer

A Pontiac woman said her ex-boyfriend shot at her, hitting her car three times in the parking lot of a hotel in Rochester Hills on Sunday, according to the Oakland County Sheriff's Office.

According to police, the 34-year-old woman said her baby's father — a 45-year-old Pontiac man — attempted to shoot her in the lot of the Red Roof Inn on Crooks Road near M-59.

The man, whose identity has not yet been released, left the scene on foot, after crashing his car behind another nearby hotel, police said.

Police used K9s to track the man for an hour at a distance of about one mile, but didn't locate him, according to the sheriff's office. The weapon used in the shooting may have been a handgun found under a tree just east of ConCorde Inn on Star-Batt Drive near Crooks, according to the sheriff's office.

Come back to freep.com for more on this story.

Advertisement

Print Powered By FormatDynamics