Get set to 'Sing Out 4 Kids'

The Children's Charities Coalition's third annual "Sing Out 4 Kids" event, sponsored by Kroger, will take place at 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 11, at The Community House.

The event will include a live for a pair of tickets to the finals of American Idol in Los Angeles.

The evening features karaoke performed by Detroit-based celebrities and personalities. The festivities will be emceed by Oakland County Sheriff Michael Bouchard and attorney Henry Baskin. Performers include Monica Gayle, anchor Fox 2 News; Joe Knollenberg, former member of the U.S. House of Representatives; Kraig Nienhuis, former Boston Bruin and musician; Hal Feder, director of Ford Export and Growth, Ford Motor Co.; Kathy Broock Ballard, real estate broker; Jamie McCarthy, singer/songwriter; Zavette Gibson, local recording artist; Mary Callaghan Lynch, Michigan Lyric Opera performing artist; and ReMonda Palmer, local performer.

"This is our third year for 'Sing Out 4 Kids' and each year just keeps getting better and better. We had a sellout last year and we hope to have a sellout this year as well," said Jennie Cascio, chairwoman for the Children's Charities Coalition. "Our thanks go out to the many celebrities who are contributing their time and talent to raise money for children in our communities."

A pair of tickets to the finals of American Idol, scheduled for the end of May in Los Angeles, will be offered in a live auction. In addition, a silent auction will feature many wonderful items and packages, including an authentic framed Red Wings jersey signed by all members of the 1995 Red Wings team; a framed signed photo of golf Payne Stewart; a vacation rental for a week in Otsego; and a "Beauty Party" for 12 at Saks Fifth Avenue, just to name a few.

General are available for $75 per person. Reserved patron seating is $125 per person and reserved patron tables of 10 are available at $1,000. Dinner will be catered by Plum Market. Cash bar. For reservations, contact CARE House at (248) 332-7173.

Proceeds from "Sing Out 4 Kids" will benefit the Children's Charities Coalition.
