Here is a look at crime reported to the Oakland County Sheriff's Office Rochester Hills Substation over the past week. According to reports:

On Wednesday around 7 a.m. deputies were dispatched to the 400 block of Lalonde Ct. for a reported larceny from vehicle. In the report, it was noted that a Garmin GPS was allegedly stolen from the woman's Cadillac DTS. The woman told deputies that her vehicle was parked in her driveway, according to the report, and that she thought she had locked the vehicle but was not completely certain. Deputies reported no signs of forced entry.

Windows smashed, items stolen from cars

An employee at Creations Salon located at 2094 W. Auburn Rd. contacted the substation on Jan. 7 to notify deputies that her vehicle was broken into, according to a report. The woman had parked at work beginning at 9:30 a.m. and saw that the passenger side front window was shattered at around 3 p.m., when she notified the deputies, according to the report. After checking her Nissan Sentra she noted that her black purse and duffel bag were missing.

A similar incident was reported on Jan. 8. A family noted that its Hyundai Elantra's front right window was broken outside of St. Paul's Albanian Catholic Church at 525 W. Auburn Road. The family had attended mass around 12:30 p.m. according to the report, and by 1:30 p.m. their vehicle had been damaged. One gym bag and two purses were missing from the Hyundai, the report noted. One of the purses included a pair of Chanel sunglasses, a passport and $300 in cash, among other items.
