GROVELAND TWP., Mich. -- Investigators are looking into a case of a 13-year-old girl who said she was sexually assaulted in a popular park.

It happened on the Fourth of July while she was swimming at the Groveland Oaks Park in Groveland Township, authorities said.

The victim told investigators an adult man fondled her. She informed her parents Tuesday and they alerted the Oakland County Sheriffs' Department.

The girl was later taken to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital for an exam, authorities said.

People who frequent the park are surprised this could happen there. "I have three grandchildren," said Kathy Bell. "It really does blow my mind because I came camping here with my parents."

Investigators do not have a detailed description for a sketch. Anyone with information on this incident is urged to call the Oakland County Sheriffs' Department.
